

Rabbit Adoption Form

At the GSPCA, our priority is to find all our rabbits permanent and loving homes, where all their needs will be met and they will be well cared for, for the rest of their lives. The rabbits are the property of the GSPCA and are rehomed at our discretion. We reserve the right to refuse to rehome a rabbit without giving a reason.

If you currently have a rabbit:

Rabbit bonding can be a complicated process, which is affected by many factors, including sex, age, neutering and even the time of year. If we have a rabbit available for adoption that could be a good match for yours, we'll have an initial 'date' between them in a neutral space to see how they get along.

If we don't have any suitable matches for your rabbit, we can save your details and contact you if one becomes available.

Any other information: _____

Are you aware of the cost of ownership, including food, enclosures, vaccinations and regular vet care? _____

There are many misconceptions about rabbit ownership. We ask that anyone looking to adopt rabbits for the first time does plenty of research on proper feeding, accommodation, and care, from respected resources such as the RSPCA and the RWF.

All our rabbits are neutered or spayed, treated for fleas, and microchipped. We make potential owners aware of any relevant previous or current health issues to the best of our ability.

Please be aware that the adoption fee is £44 per rabbit.

If you have any questions about rabbit ownership, bonding, or the adoption process, please email the GSPCA Small Animal Department at smallies@gspca.org.gg.
